

NEW BOOKS SPRING 2021

GENERAL FICTION

Atwood Margaret: The Testaments
Beckerman, H.: If Only I Could Tell You
Candlish Louise: The Other Passenger
Chevalier Tracy: A Single Thread
Corry Jane: I Made a Mistake
Diamond Katerina: Truth or Die
Douglas Stuart: Shuggie Bain
Evaristo Bernardine: Girl, Woman, Other
Griffiths Elly: The Woman in Blue
Hislop Victoria: One August Night
Hunter Cara: No Way
Imrie Celia: Sail Away
Jewell Lisa: The Invisible Girl
Jewell Lisa: The Third Wife
Kelly Cathy: The Family Gift
McAllister G: The Evidence Against You
Michaelides Alex: The Silent Patient
Moyes Jojo: The Giver of Stars
Owens Delia: Where the Crawdads Sing
Parks Adele: Just My Luck
Richardson Kim: The Book Woman of Troublesome Creek

CRIME AND THRILLERS

Baldacci David: Daylight

Barclay Linwood: A Noise Downstairs

Cleeves Ann: The Moth Catcher

Connelly Michael: Fair Warning

Connelly Michael: The Law of Innocence

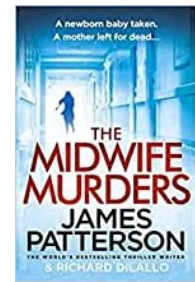

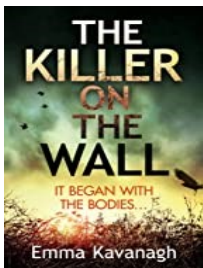

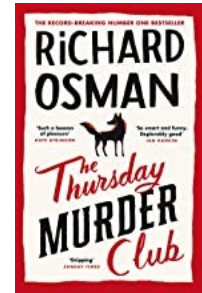

Kavanagh Emma: The Killer on the Wall

Logan TM: The Catch

Osman Richard: The Thursday Murder Club

Patterson James: The Coast-to-Coast Murders

Patterson James: The Midwife Murders

NON FICTION

Campbell Duncan: Underworld

The definitive history of Britain's organized crime

Moore Cpt Tom: Tomorrow Will be a Good Day

Captain Tom's autobiography

Morpurgo Michael: Only Remembered

Memories to mark the centenary of WW1

Obama Michelle: Becoming

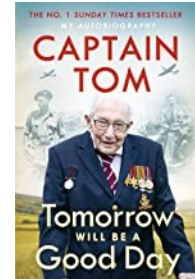

An intimate, powerful and inspiring memoir by the First Lady of the United States

Keeble and Hollington: Hurting Too Much

Shocking stories from the frontline of child protection.

Winn, Rayner: The Salt Path

A tale of triumph of hope over despair; a couple walk the 630 mile South West coastline

Fawdon Community Library, Fawdon Community Centre, Fawdon Park Road

Fawdoncommunitylibrary@gmail.com / tel: 0191 284 3254